

President signs Temporary Extension Act of 2010 extending and modifying COBRA premium subsidy

Late, on March 2, the President signed into law H.R. 4691, the “Temporary Extension Act of 2010” (the Act), which, among other provisions extends the COBRA continuation premium subsidy for one month and makes a number of other clarifying and substantive changes to it. For details on the Act's changes affecting the COBRA continuation premium subsidy, see the Special Study article below.